Nick has an extensive commercial law, maritime law, and arbitration practice in Hong Kong and Victoria, Australia.

Nick has experience in contractual disputes, banking and finance law, commercial fraud and international arbitration (with a focus on maritime law and international sale of goods). His expertise includes:

- Cross-jurisdictional commercial disputes, including applications relating to forum challenges and anti-suit injunctions, and applications to enforce foreign judgments.
- Claims relating to financial obligations and enforcement of securities and guarantees.
- Disputes relating to fraudulent misconduct and breaches of directors' duties.
- Court proceedings with respect to international arbitrations, including applications to set aside or enforce arbitral awards.

Nick is recognised by Doyles' Guide as a leading counsel for maritime, shipping and transport law in Hong Kong. He has experience in disputes about cargo claims, shipping collisions, and ship sale & purchase.

Nick has appeared in trials of admiralty actions, and in numerous arbitrations concerning charterparty disputes. He has also handled applications for judicial sale of ships and distribution of proceeds of sale.

Nick is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, and is on the list of arbitrators with the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre and the Hong Kong Maritime Arbitration Group.
